Dear Father

I arrived here safely yesterday and found the Capt. anxiously awaiting my arrival to make out some Muster Rolls for new Recruits that have come in since I left.

I forgot my Pen please send it by George in the Morning also send some more old Bed Clothing by George if you have any as I like the old Quilt better than a Blanket and when George comes he will want the Quilt himself and as we do not sleep together now I would like to have one too send any thing you think I would want and you do not want or need at home as I can send them all back when we go to leave here.

I saw the Genl a while ago and he says he thinks I will get the place as the appointments will all be made at once — Send up my Little book that I had in the L. M. Dept before it is a Ration Book. Tell George and all the Boys to come back on the day their furloughs run out as several of the Boys stayed out one & two days over their time and got put in the Guard House for it. George had better come out on the morning train —

Remember me to Aunt Lucia and all other Friends

Yours affly
