1936

1936, Evabel to Jack

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Evabel, "1936, Evabel to Jack" (1936). Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection. 7. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/7

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
1936, Evabel to Jack

Keywords
1936; United States; correspondence; postal service; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; family; father; Oberlin, Ohio; Elyria; Ohio; anxiety; travel

Identifier
2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1936-miss-miss_002

This letter is available at Chapman University Digital Commons: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/7
my darling,

Oh, how I hate to write these kind of letters best, the time always come when one must.
The reason I am writing this is because I want to tell you that, perhaps it would be best if you did not come down on the, you see, my darling, this is so long until I hope very soon, and try to make it very soon, sweet heart, now, don’t worry, I won’t come out to Berlin to see you, I have done will power left in me and please don’t come to Elyria to see me or try to get in touch with me because it will be too hard on today’s.

Oh Jack, I love you so much, but sweet heart it is the only way out and maybe this will help the pain. So just keep your chin up and smile and so will I, and everything will come out for the best. I know it will.

So this means as long until in the near future. Remember I’m backing you in everything — Always your own, Frank.
My Darling,

Oh, how I hate to write these kind of letters but, the times always comes when one must. The reason I am writing this is because I want to tell you that perhaps it would be best if you did not come down on Wed. You see my dad is kind of sore anyway so, my darling, this is so long until, I hope, very soon. And try to make it very soon, sweet—heart, No, don’t worry, I won’t come out to Oberlin to see you, I have some will power left in me, and please don’t come to Elyria to see me or try to get in touch with me because it will be too hard on both of us.

Oh, Jack, I love you so much, but sweetheart it is the only way out and maybe this will break the jinx. So you just keep your chin up and smile and so will I. And everything will come out for the best. I know it will.

So this means so long until in the near future. Remember I’m backing you in everything —— Always, your own, Fink.