Dear Father

I received your letter today was very glad indeed to hear from you for I have been very anxious about you knowing that when you were sick ~~were~~ you was sick in earnest. I am still in good health and a fair prospect of continuing so I have much better living since I have gone to stay with the Dr and sleep in a officers tent which is a good thing for it does not leak and our other tents were of no account at all for the water would run right through them we have every thing we could ask for in the beating line and a Negro woman cooks dinner for us in a House near by we have Green Corn Peas Beans Potatoes Tomatoes Young Chickens Moulton &c by just taking the trouble to go and take it our Horses have forage off the Country now we do not draw a single article from the Govt.

You ask how I like my new position I like it very well indeed have but very little to do I think your plan of plan of going to Ohio a very good one if you can raise the Money I did not have any idea that you would need any money and I lent mine at ten per cent interest. I am very sorry indeed if necessary I could have sent you $5000 or any money of mine that you have in your hands ~~below~~ use it in any way that you please and I shall not object.

I loaned my Money to Dr Lewis and have his note with immediatly when you receive this as Al Elvin will let me have my amount of money from that which he has at home

Selen write that Uncle Hings folks had got back did Aunt Mary come with them I write to Uncle George soon after we came here but have recd no answer

I hope that you will soon get better write and let me know your plans when you get this I must close so good Bye
Your aff son
George
