My Dear Father

I have but a few minutes to write - There is a mail going out this morning and I want to send you a few lines - We are in the midst of another Raid. It was evening or a large part of it is now no and reported marching on this place. We will probably have hardly time here before you see this - We have not one thousand ~~effective~~ effective men at this post and unless we are reinforced we will go up but we intend to give them the best we have while it lasts -
No more now

I want this to go this morning and will close

Good Bye I will write the first opportunity
I am off now.
