
William Vasos Second World War correspondence

CAWL Archives: Second World War

11-23-1944

1944-11-23, Irene to William

Irene Vasos

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos_collection

Recommended Citation

Vasos, Irene, "1944-11-23, Irene to William" (1944). William Vasos Second World War correspondence. 26. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos_collection/26

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in William Vasos Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

Irene Vasos; William Vasos; November 23, 1944; World War 1939 1945 War and civilization -- History -- 20th century. United States; World War 1939 1945 United States. Social life and customs 20th century; Nineteen Forties; World War 1939 1945 United States. Iowa -- History -- 20th Century; World War, 1939-1945 United States Navy; World War, 1939-1945 -- United States. Homefront; World War, 1939-1945 -- United States. Sailors; World War 1939 1945 United States. Prisoners of War;

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, postal service, correspondence, wife, husband, marriage, women at home, love, Carroll, IA, mother, father, children, family, Thanksgiving, holiday, celebration, food, alcohol, romance, comradeship, recreation and entertainment, leisure, culture, loneliness, homesickness, humor, Kentucky, prisoners, prisoner of war, Germany, Germans, medical kit, gifts, insignia, coming home, post-war plans, Halbur, IA, religion

Identifier

2015.123.w.r._Vasos_worldwartwo_1944-11-23_009.pdf

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

We took pictures today so will send some when we get them. Nov. 23 - 44

This is Thurs. night.

Dearest Darling:

Hi Han! Here I am sitting here in the dining room out on the farm, going to have my nightly visit with my honey. Gosh I go to bed. Going to tell him how much we missed him, today our our Phantasmagoria day. We were together last year this time, but it wasn't a couple weeks later that you left.
I can't hardly believe it was a year since you left. Time does fly though doesn't it. How I wished I could of lived over a year ago today, today. Just to have you walking around, and to be able to look at you and close to have you hold me in your arms and tell me something I never tire of hearing.

Know what how I love you. I love you so very, very much darling.
I didn't get any letters Tuesday or Wednesday how - how come. I sure do miss them. My day just isn't rite when I don't hear from my
hon. I guess you won't celebrate Thanksgiving this week. I don't know why Iowa had to be different than the rest. Part of the people around here observed it this week and some didn't. They were started something when they decided to change the day. It just didn't seem like Thanksgiving at all around here. Frank & Kate's sis and Babe & Mickey were up for dinner.
We had duck and a couple of chickens and pumpkin pie. The kids had their pop & ice cream & candy.
Everyone ate to their hearts content.
We had some give high balls before dinner. They really hit Mother and Kate and Babe & Lucille. Were they ever silly. Mother was perspiring so, and you should have seen Kate, she saw two plates of food in front of her all the time. We ate or rather sat at the table for an hour. Mom & Dad & Katie went to church this morning. I bathed Patsy & started the dinner.

Lucille stayed home to clean up.

Father & Mary came out this afternoon for a while. He called my house to see if I was home. He was going to bring me along with him if I was. He told us all about his visit down to Kentucky where he saw his nephew who is here from Germany and is a prisoner here. It was very interesting. This nephew has a wife and a son in the old country, he doesn't know how they are or what.

Sis also brought a box full of things I'd sent home. a medical kit from ^{the} Germans and iniquia, and a french ruler, flag and some other things. It is really seeing everything. It really is tough over there. I guess he doesn't get mail half the time. It doesn't seem possible that he and all the rest of the boys have to go through this. He writes and tells her they are going on a month's vacation when he gets out. They aren't going to do anything but go on a second honeymoon. I told her that we were going on one too when you came back. But I bet we will be so happy just to be together that we won't care to go any place, ^{now} together. we will be in our home. It won't make any difference where we are or anything. Darling, because we won't notice time, place or anything.

This waiting will be worthwhile, wait it honey. But it does seem so terribly long though don't it. But everything comes to those who waits.
If one would just think about all that it would be too much. So if you really love someone, one can live on love and dreams of the future when it is as beautiful and one has such a good husband as you are darling. Remember love you now and I always will.

Pops & Emma are having, Pete and his daughter and her folks tomorrow. Pete sent a couple of ducks. I called him yesterday and he said he was feeling about the same but he was working.
I got some carnation milk for [[Vasos Correspondence #9]]

[[Page 1 - Letter]]

We took pictures so will send some when we get them Nov. 23 - 44
 This is Thurs. nite.

Dearest Darling:
Hi Hon! Here I am sitting here in the dining room out on the
farm, going to have my nightly visit with my honey before I go to bed. Going to tell him how much we missed him, today at our Thanksgiving day. We were together last year this time, but it wasn't
a couple weeks later that you left.
I can't hardly believe it was a year
since you left. Time does fly though doesn't it. How I wished I could of lived over a year ago today,
today. Just to have you walking
around, and to be able to look at you and alone to have you hold me in your arms and tell me
something I never tire of hearing

[[Page 2- Letter]]

Know what hon, I love you. I love you so very very much darling.
I didn't get any letters Tuesday or Wednesday hon – how come. I sure do miss them. My day just isn't rite when I don't hear from my
hon. I guess you won't celebrate
Thanksgiving this week. I don't know
why Iowa had to be different than
the rest. Part of the people around here observed it this week and some didn't. They sure started something when they decided to
change the day. It just didn't seem like Thanksgiving at all around here. Frank + Kate + Sis and Babe + Mickey were up for dinner.
We had duck and a couple chickens
and pumpkin pie. The kids
had their pop + ice cream + candy.
Everyone ate to their hearts content.
We had some give high balls

[[Page 3- Letter]]

[[underline]] 2 [[/underline]]

before dinner. They really hit Mother and Kate and babe + Lucille. Were they ever silly. Mother was perspiring so, and you should have seen Kate, she saw two plates of food in front of her all the time. We ate on rather sat at the table for an hour. Mom + Dad + Katie went to church this morning. I bathed Patsy + started the dinner. Lucille stayed home to clean up.

Father + Mary came out this afternoon for awhile. He called my house to see if I was home. He was going to bring me along with him if I was. He told us all about his visit Down to Kentucky where he saw his nephew who is here from Germany and is a prisoner here. It was very interesting. This nephew has a wife and a son in the old country, he doesn't know how they are or what.

[[Page 4- Letter]]

Sis also brought a box full of things Mel sent home. A medical kit from the Germans and insignia, and a French ruler + flag and some other things. He is really seeing everything. It really is tough over there. I guess he doesn't get mail half the time. It doesn't seem possible that he and all the rest of the boys have to go through this. He writes and tells her they are going on a month's vacation when he gets out. They aren't going to do anything but go on a second honey moon. I told her that we were going on one too when you came back. But I bet we will be as happy just to be together that we won't care to go any place, cause together we will be in our home. It won't make any difference where we are or anything. Darling, because we won't notice time, place or anything.

[[Page 5- Letter]]

[[underline]] 3 [[/underline]]

This waiting will be worthwhile, won't it honey. But it does seem so terribly long though, don't it. But everything comes to those who wait.
If one would just think about all
that it would be too much. So if you really love someone, one can live on love and dream of the future when it is as beautiful and
one has such a good husband as you are darling. Remember love you hon and I always will.

Pop + Emma are having, Pete and his daughter and her folks
tomorrow. Pete sent a couple of ducks. I called him yesterday
and he said he was feeling about
the same but he was working.
I got some carnation milk for

[[Page 6- Letter]]

him down at Halburn. Don was going down to see him, but Emma had gone to Westside, so there wouldn't be anyone at the house. I want to go down tonite before I go out home, as we haven't been down in quite a while.

Well hon, this is a really a race between me + the mail man, so I will say Remember, I love you + always will.

Do you ever hear from Chuck? He sent his watch home to be fixed, no letter though. Does Mel write you? I guess he really sees plenty. What do you hear from Leo? When you see Jerry tell him hello for us and have you asked him about that picture of his, what he wants done with it? May the Lord be with you always but especially on Thanksgiving. We are grateful that you [[one word]] the states.
XX Don XX Judy X X Patsy X Love X X Irene XXX