My Darling -

Hi Honey bunch how's my lovely lady tonight. I got up about 8:30 and went over to the next barracks to see Jerry. He was writing letters and had his bag all lashed up ready to go. I used his razor and shaved and washed up then I helped him carry his bag down to the place where they load them on the truck. He wanted some Christmas cards so I went over to the canteen and got him some. Then I left and came back to the YMCA and got the 11 o'clock bus back to Little Creek. I went to chow and had some delicious baked ham. I got an extra piece and made a sandwich and wrapped it in wax paper and put it in my pocket for later use. Then, my main purpose for coming back - to see if I had any mail from my honey. But no mail did I have so I caught the 1 o'clock bus and went back to Norfolk and went to the YMCA and listened to the Army and Navy football game. Boy it was a good game but Army won. Then I met one of the guys from the office and we had supper. I had a pork chop, beans, peas, pie coffee and rolls. Cost 50 cents. It was so cold out that we didn't care to go out walking around so we decided to come back "home". We got back to camp at 8 o'clock and stopped in the office. There was two lovely and delicious letters for me from my honey gal. I love the lock of hair you sent and gosh how its just like you sent me a million dollars. Now I actually have a part of you with me. I felt it and stroked it and it felt so nice and soft which is just like every part of you. How boot all your curves how still as nice as ever? Gee honey what a gal you are. The most wonderful one in the world and knowing I am married to you makes me one happy guy. How come I was so lucky to win your hand for life? well Im so glad it was you. Darling I Love you.

I went over to the canteen and got a pint of ice cream and came down to the barracks and made my bunk up and read for awhile.

Boy honey I sure could stand a good partner sleeping next to me now as it is really cold
out. That old wind is really cold and blowing hard.
Of course honey Id love to have you next to me all the time, boy that will be swell when we can do that again hon.

Well Darling guess I better close now
by saying nite nite Angel and dont forget I Love you. I Love you. I Love you. more than anything else in the world.

"Ill be yours"
