Hello Honey and all —

Just came over to the office to write and say hello. It's almost 9 o'clock. I went to the show after supper. It was really good. Gary Cooper in "For Whom The Bells Toll".

We are kept pretty busy around here. There sure is a lot of paper work to keep the Navy running.

They have been having bond drives here for the last 2 weeks and will have until Dec. 7. They sell chances here at the personnel office just for us at 25 cents each. The lucky number gets a $25 bond. I took a couple but wasn't lucky enough to win. They sell about 2 bonds a day that way just here in the office. Have you gotten any more of mine?

I received a nice letter from you today advising me to go to communion - which I intend to do.

I enjoyed Don's pictures very much. He is getting better every day isn't he. Suppose the kids are still enjoying the snow.

Well, Hon - guess I better go so I'll see you later. Remember I Love you. I Love you. I Love you.
