Dearest Darling -

Hi Honey hows my wonderful wife and kids today.

Well, I see you didn't come up here. This morning we went to colors and then come back and stood by our bunks while the officers inspected our bunk. Then we dressed and went up to the office where we had personal inspection. Then we got our leave papers and left. I went in to Norfolk and got a room at the Navy YMCA.

Then I went over to Portsmouth and stopped off at the Marine Barracks to see if Otto was still there but he was shipped out about a week ago to Philadelphia so guess he'll be getting a ship very shortly. I saw Bob Wilkens there and we had dinner. Then he had to go get examined so I went over to the canteen and wrote a couple of letters.

after supper Bob came over to the canteen and we went to the show. When we got out it was so foggy and rainy you could hardly see 2 feet in front of you. We walked over by his barracks and stopped at a little stand where he bought a couple of sandwiches and milk. We took them upstairs and ate in one of the classrooms. We talked awhile and then I come over and hit the sack. But before I go to sleep I must tell you that I'm sure in love with you hon and I miss you so very much.

Well Dorking guess I better close for now so I'll be dreaming of you and kissing and loving
