This is Thurs. nite.

My Dearest Darling Bill:

My honey, tonite at 10 P.M.
I want to tell you my sweet just how much I really love you my darling and how I always will. My darling remember that you mean a lot to a certain family at 208 N. Walnut here in Carroll, Iowa. You are our life to make our life around, and the day when you'll come back and enjoy the bliss of a happy family with us again.
There was a certain something that went with you when you left us on that Dec. 13th of '43
But we have hopes of a very very bright future for us. There is a certain one watching over you and protecting you spiritually and temporally for me. So darling my one thing is to make a happy home for our children. I hope you share the same trust in me that I have in you, because it makes the waiting easier. I love you Bill.

No mail today so no letters. I had my letter out there until this afternoon never thinking about the day as it was. I hope I get two tomorrow. Boy how did we have the snow this morning. It was really deep let me tell you. After I came back from 7 o'clock Mass, I started
