My Dearest Darling Bill:

Hi! Kone! This is the Saturday morning here in Iowa. Patsy is sitting here in her high chair covered with chocolate from one ear to the other. She just had a chocolate cookie. She just loves chocolate. Judy just got up and is eating her Ry "pizzas", Judy's name for them. She slept a little bit longer than she usually does. They didn't go to bed until 10:15 last nite. They had their popcorn and played here. So I expected old Butch to sleep late too but no he was awake at 8: AM. He is so used to getting up at 7:30 to 8.

I went to church this morning and I had Janice walk over and stay with the kids. She crawled in bed with Dan and when I told him that Janice slept with him, he said "I don't believe it." He said Did she sleep with me all night? I said no, he felt so silly after I told him. She said she didn't have anything to do as the kids slept through all of it. But I didn't want to leave them alone. He is out finding somebody to play with. He & Judy were playing store this morning with cards that I had. He was counting them and he counted up to ~~50~~ 50. He does pretty good counting too. He said to Judy "Don't lose them Judy as Daddy wants to see our cards."
