"THE NEED OF CONFIDENCE AND COOPERATION"

Talk to five men about Cal. Chris. College

I took to a group of five men called into my office to discuss Cal. this College 1925

Called you as men in whom our church people have confidence to lay before you a situation effecting our College and asking your help.

All interested in that institution.

For years worked and prayed for a school. Have one started and going. Fine prospects unless the foundation is under-mined.

That foundation is confidence. An institution like this limited to a certain constituency must have confidence if it would prosper. It might live but not fulfil the need.

This confidence is being destroyed.

If the College is not entitled to confidence as it is being conducted, we want to know it.

The Trustees will do the right if they are convinced as to what that is.

I have invited you to have a frank and free discussion of the situation.

I have confidence in you, your good sense, fairness and interest. The church has the same confidence.

You are in a position to render great service at this time.

Back of our College is the church. We can move forward or backward. The city is growing; the moments for right action are fast passing. We can easily lose out or we can go with the great onward current.

So College and church are at stake.

What we say and do here shall be in confidence. At proper time our conclusions may be helpfully given out.

This irritating criticism is most discouraging. Life is too short for me to have years cut short by this. Be frank and tell you I will not enter a long fight. I will pay up my subscription and thought it will be disappointing, will quit.

We will lose others - my son.

Some criticism we may always expect, but not a concerted attempt to cripple.

Professor Cheverton is being criticised.

If justly want to know it. If unjustly your words to the brotherhood will do much to restore confidence.

I want you to investigate. This to be done without public knowledge. Professor Cheverton will willingly come before you, I am sure.

We don't want to injure him, nor do we want him to injure school

He has his friends, but nevertheless must not have faith destroyed.

Shall we permit teaching in accord with modern scholarship.

We have State University as back ground. Must teach Bible to attract not repel.

From historical point of view, Development of history. Campbell spoke about starlight, moonlight and sunlight.

We want this College helpful in a correct and fine way to our young people. Splendid group.

Teaching must be constructive, never destructive.

Help us get proper Trustees.

The church across ~~steer~~^{evil} influence on students.

Like an army encamped and a small camp of disaffected grouped within the inclosure. Destroy morale. Any disaffected students find home and comfort in hostile camp.

Hard time at best - financials -

this has hurt -

Shall we go on in fine way
you must take this up

Conscientiously,
No quarter service

Want to exalt Jesus.

Make him real & properly interpreted
