

2-27-1931

College Notes-Advice to New Students

Charles C. Chapman
Chapman University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/chapman_college_lectures

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Speech and Rhetorical Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

Chapman, Charles C., "College Notes-Advice to New Students" (1931). Charles C. Chapman College Lectures. Paper 48.
http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/chapman_college_lectures/48

This Lecture is brought to you for free and open access by the Charles C. Chapman Family Papers at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles C. Chapman College Lectures by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

COLLEGE NOTES

"ADVICE TO NEW STUDENTS"

Freshman Class dinner at C. C. C.

February 27, 1931

Frederickson Class dinner
Cal. Chris. College 4/27/31
"Advice to New Students"

Relations of student and Faculty never had Should be close and intimate

Students attend an educational institution for discipline and culture.

steep reality - struggle - obstacles
Life is before you. How you use it, and the station in life you may occupy depends upon your qualifications for such position.

It is vital therefore, that every hour should be wisely used and every advantage offered by the institution utilized - even every obstacle overcome. Ewing Cummings

The months will pass quickly. Great advancement can be made.

My observation cultural and refining influence.
Young lady. - men

The relation between teacher and pupil should be peculiarly intimate. The student must respect his teacher and have confidence in his ability to instruct. This respect may grow into a very warm friendship. Examples: J. W. McGarvey and Miss Piper.

advantage and
The student should make a confidante of his teacher. Be frank and honest in expressing your ambitions, your weaknesses and the obstacles in your way, as you see them.

After you have become acquainted with the Faculty you may select one in whom you can confide. This close intimate contact and the counsel you receive from time to time may be of more real value to you than the work in the class room.

Will say for the Faculty that if any instructor loses his interest in his work or his interest in the student, he had better seek other employment.

there proper have you will be happy to find a deep interest in you. If you show a desire for knowledge they will be keen to help you

The greatest quality of Life is Character
It is the highest & best possession we may attain -

Character is human nature at its best In the very life of our Nation Ch. is its strongest & richest asset -

Moral & spiritual qualities rule.
"Even in war" Napoleon said the moral is to the physical as ten to one"

A man may have little culture, modest abilities, & little wealth, yet if he have sterling character he will always command influence

Franklin attributed his success as a public man to his known integrity of character

Add the grace of an attractive personality - yet you farther you are at C.C.C. to acquire these Your faculty will help you in every way.

Don't get peeved at them - You may not see what they are driving at.

One of Jefferson's thoughts best to give new students a jolt on religion on their early training