Dear Wonderful Husband:

I wish you were here to enjoy our wonderful weather, this morning. Dussing it is just perfect. Patsy is sitting here on the back porch playing with the kite now she is looking thru the back door here. She is waving bye-bye. She sure gets around now. She had the little red wagon here on the porch and playing with it. It seems honey we do our writing to each other while we are listening to sentimental music. Right now Fred Waring is playing "Leave it to me to remember." Just before they played "He's home for a little while."

It seems all these songs speak of you and for you. But that is love. Before I go any further let me tell you, too, that darling, my love for you gets stronger as each day goes by.
I'm as glad that I married you and am waiting for you to come back to me. Darling, I need you in so many ways.
I love you darling.

Last nite I took the garbage over to Mrs. Dirks and after I came back Annette gave us a pan full of strawberries. All this while Don was playing with Marvin and the kids. I sat outside with Alma and 9:30 I went in with Judy & Peggy.
Don came in soon afterwards before I knew he had shoes on when he went out. Well the started to stutter, and I made him go out & find them. He came in with his stockings and not his shoes and couldn't find his slippers. I told him he better find them and finally he came back and he was all smiles. He said "Mamma you know, I forgot, but I saw the coaster turned over and I remembered. Boy I almost forgot. That kid is really good. Last nite I got the rest of his summer clothes around.

 He said Mamma are we getting ready to go to Little Creek now. Boy, oh boy. I said well don't you glad.
 He said, Oh mamma we are going to see Daddy. He'll be terribly dissatisfied if he doesn't ^{go}

The first thing Judy says is "Is Daddy home yet? Mamma."
Every morning the same thing.
If you were here this morning, you could find yourself in the cherry tree. The birds really did a good job of picking a lot of them. I hope to get the few. I want Lis to help me.
She has the afternoon off until Saturday noon. So we might go out to the farm tonight. I have some clothes to fix over.
I go to work Saturday morn at 8 o'clock. So Lucille stays with the kids. Cis really enjoys her work at the Burke hotel. She gets along just swell.

Ronnie says to make him more pictures. He gets a kick out of them. I love you - your kiddie send all their love & kisses.
