Dear Bill

Hi Bill. how are you. I hope you are just fine. I am very sorry I didn't write you sooner. But I will do better from now on.

I am just fine. And so is my wife. You see Bill Vergene is out her with me. Vergene that's my wife name. I just got back from seeing her.
I get liberty every time
I am of work.

Well Bill I guess you
know I am in the
C. B. We been doing a lot of work lately. We worked every night last week. The week were working days. Were loading ships. Its called stevedore.

Is Irene coming
out to stay with you.
How long is she going
to stay. Boy that really nice. Say hello
to her when you see
her.

Were do you think
you will go, when
they close the place.
I hope you come out to California. Then I can go on liberty with

you. Would really be swell.

We really have a nice place to stay. We have two rooms. And
we can use the kitchen
and the bath room.
So when we could go
on liberty together, and
you could stay with
us. I know my wife
would love you.
She is really swell.
I am really glad to have you with me. She is going to stay as long as I will be here. The way they see will be here for a long time. If you

come any were close
to Dinard Calif. Please let ~~me~~ us know. The name of the camp is,
Camp Russell.

Well Bill I don't
know much of any news.
I hope this letter finds
you all in the best
of health. I'll write
you along letter soon.
Good-night.

Hello from
Vergene Reed
