Cole - Contribution to College

Fine son. Cong. Mr. and Mrs. C.

Happy to talk about the church and the College.

I love them both. They are closely related.

For many years we realized the need of preparing our capable young people for leadership in church, professional and business life.

This desire to establish an educational institution became a passion. Knew if we were to carry on our great program that of presenting our plea, must have leaders.

Spectacular scene at Convention.

At last the enterprise for doing this was established. It is now on a sound financial and educational basis.

The nation's leading educators are turning with deepest interest to the discussion of the value of the Christian College and of Christian Education.

I have a number of new books and papers discussing all - setting forth in strongest terms the value of Christian College.

It seems we have anticipated or been abreast of this new movement.

The necessity of leadership in any great enterprise or program.

No greater enterprise than the Church.

If we prepare leaders in every other walk in life, why not for the Church?

We had long suffered because of our neglect to prepare leaders for the Church.

Boys and girls in our Sunday Schools have grown into manhood and womanhood only to be lost to the Church, for they were obliged to seek their higher education in some denominational school or State Institution.

Nothing to offer. This neglect unwise on part of Church. Look after them until they are stabilized.

This need great in Southern California.

That teaching of religion and the ethics of Jesus are essential to a sound and complete education is evident to all right thinking people.

This is what we are doing at C.C.C.

Our accomplishments.

Our aims. Fine young people change
