Feb. 14, 1946
Thursday, Nite.

Dear Irene Bill & Family.

I received your most welcome letter, quite some time ago. And was sure glad to hear from you. And the picture are really swell. Thanks and awfully lot. Josh but, Don, Judy, and Patty. Be sure getting big. I bet Don about even knew me. When I come back again, all three are really cute. I must say they very good looking. Because they take after their mother & Dad. Oh how does Bill like to be a civilian again. I bet he likes that better than the navy, I know I would.

How are you folks & the kids coming along. I hope and pray you all in the best of health. I am just fine. But homesick. And still as fat as I always been. But not any taller than, I wish I would a little.

I wish I would grow a little bit.
Then wish I would look like a man.

Well today is Valentines Day. Its been a year ago yesterday. I been in the Navy. And it seems like two.
But I dont think it will be long and I'll be taking straighter work.

Well here it isnt so bad over here. But its sure dose get hot. And rains and awfull lot.

Here I havent gotten your Christmas card or package as yet. But it will get here pretty soon I guess. And thank and awfull lot, for sending them to me.
Really swell of you folks.

Margem is just fine. She writes to me ever day. But I dont received them that way. I really miss her to.

I received a letter from the folks today. Sure wrote a swell letter. I just got thraught writing them.

Here I am sorry I didnt write sooner.
I will do better from now on.

Dash folks its just about time for the night to go out. So I better hurry it up. I will write you folks a real long letter soon. And please write as soon as you can.

Good nite ever one.

Love of Love Love.

Thanks alot for
the picture
