Chapman Holds 2005 Orange County Executive Survey

Thursday, May 19, 2005 Hyatt Regency, Irvine

ORANGE, Calif., April 29, 2005 Chapman University's A. Gary Anderson Center for Economic Research has expanded its scope to include the annual Orange County Executive Survey. Chapman will reveal the results of the 2005 survey at a breakfast event, Thursday, May 19 at the Hyatt Regency Irvine.

The results of the annual survey in which nearly 300 Orange County CEOs and executives in finance, insurance, real estate, manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade participated will be presented by James L. Doti, Ph.D., Chapman president and Donald Bren Distinguished Chair of Business and Economics, and Dennis Aigner, Ph.D., director of the Orange County Executive Survey and research fellow at Chapman's A. Gary Anderson Center for Economic Research.

Now in its 19th year, the Orange County Executive Survey is a collaborative project between Chapman University and members of the business and government community. Survey results highlight emerging trends in the economy, employment, expansion and global interests, among other areas.
