Dearest Wife,

We had no mail call aboard ship today. Mail they didn't have time to distribute before we left. Two letters from you, honey, and one from sis. Lucky me.

I knew Florence would be pestering you to stay longer than you'd planned. She can be quite trying at times - so unreasonable. Was glad to hear that Frank would be going over for a while.

Hope you got the windshield wipers fixed, sweety.
Tell me about it when you write.

The ocean was pretty today, a little rough,
but so far I feel O.K.

Cigarettes are only fifty cents a carton here. Most other items are a little higher than the usual PX prices tho.

Well sweety, I'll say so long for now. I love you, and think of you always. Lots of hugs and kisses,

Your Own,
Jack
