1944-10-27, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell
1944-10-27, Jack to Evabel

Keywords
October, 1944; 1944; United States; New York, N.Y.; Elyria, Ohio; army; soldiers; troops; signal corps; correspondence; V-mail; postal service; infantry; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; censorship; automobiles; transportation; Englad; English; money; economy; finances; budget

Identifier
2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1944-10-27_031
Dearest Darling,

I received your letter postmarked the 12th today. It must have gotten sort of screwed up as yesterday's mail was postmarked the 16th. Anyway, just as I got letters from my baby.

These automobiles over here are really amusing. Some of them are really small.

I turned my money in to be changed to English currency, now I'll have to learn the values.

Sweetie, have I reminded you lately how very much I love you. You're such a sweet little wife. I think of you all day, and dream of you at night, and wish I ever be glad when that five day comes along that I can tell you how wonderful you are — the person. Good night. Sweetheart, your own, Jack

Oct. 27, 1944
[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE APR 1944 – Dec 1944 #31]

[Page 1 – Envelope]

[[Image: Print Text:]]

WAR & NAVY
DEPARTMENTS
V - - MAIL SERVICE
OFFICIAL BUSINESS]]

[[in pencil]] 4
Oct. 27, 1944

Dearest darling,

I received your letter postmarked the 12th today. It must have gotten sort of screwed up as yesterday’s mail was postmarked the 16 [[Image: ink-blot]] Anyway just so I get letters from my baby.

These automobiles over here are really amusing. Some of them are really small.

I turned my money in to be changed to English currency. Now I’ll have to learn the values.

Sweetie, have I reminded you lately how very much I love you. You’re such a sweet little wife. I think of you all day, and dream of you at nite, and will I ever be glad when that fine day comes along that I can tell you how wonderful you are – in person. Good nite sweetheart, Your Own, [[underscore]] Jack [[underscore]]