
Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence

CAWL Archives: Second World War

12-1-1944

1944-12-01, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1944-12-01, Jack to Evabel" (1944). Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence. 429.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/429

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

Jack P. Bell; December 1, 1944; World War, 1939 - 1945; World War II; World War Two; United States; War and Civilization -- History -- 20th Century; United States. Army; United States. Army. 78th Infantry Division; United States. Regimental histories 78th Signal Company; United States. Regimental histories 78th Infantry Division; Elyria (Ohio) -- History -- 20th Century; Women - History - 20th Century; Nineteen Forties; World War, 1939 -- 1945 -- Soldiers; World War, 1939 -- 1945 -- Women; Popular Culture - England - History - 20th Century; England

Keywords

December, 1944; 1944; United States; New York, N.Y.; Elyria, Ohio; army; soldiers; troops; signal corps; correspondence; postal service; infantry; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; censorship; Belgium; propaganda; patriotism; American eagle; eagle; V-mail; clothing; England; Bournemouth; economy; recreation and entertainment; leisure; sight-seeing; brother; family; weather; pictures; photography; food

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1944-12-01_034

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

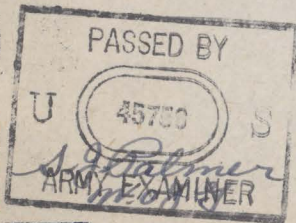

Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
78th. Signal Co. A.P.O. 78
C/o Post-Mstr. New York, N.Y.

12-44

VIA AIR MAIL

Mrs. Jack Bell
352 $\frac{1}{2}$ West Street
Elyria, Ohio

Dec. 1, 1944
In Belgium

Dearest Sweetheart,

I wrote you a little V-mail letter this morning, but you can't say very much in them so I thought I'd start this one. These take longer, but I'll keep writing some of each.

Your new dress sounds plenty yummy, honey. I sure would like to see you in it.

I can tell you a little bit about England now. I was in Bournemouth. It's quite famous as a summer resort. It's a little more prosperous than the rest of the country as a whole, and they really have a beautiful beach. There you can find some of the most modern architecture as well as some pretty old stuff. The hotel where I stayed was really a museum piece altho' it had been fixed up quite comfortably with showers and bathrooms.

Chuck and I found a beautiful little park which seemed to run from the beach right thru' the business section. I can imagine that it would be a heck of a fine place to see in the summer time. England in the fall and winter is rather a bleak proposition. It's a miserable climate, and we were fortunate enough to have a fairly bright day when we snapped those pictures.

Fish and chips is a famous English meal so you can bet I really enjoyed that. There were a number of cafes nearby.

I'll probably think of things to tell you about it from time to time.

Baby dear, I love you very very much. I think of you all day long, and dream of you at nite. I'm sending you millions of hugs and kisses,

Yours Always,
Jack

[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE APR 1944 – Dec 1944 #23]

[Page 1 – Envelope]

Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495	12 – 1	[[Image: Two purple 3-cent	[[Image:
78th. Signal Co. A.P.O. 78	44	postage stamps with print	military post-
C/O Pst. Mstr. New York, N.Y.		text: “WIN THE WAR”]]	mark stamp
		[[Print text: “VIA AIR MAIL”]]	with date:
			Dec 3]]

Mrs. Jack Bell
352 1/2 West Street
Elyria, Ohio

[[Image: Censor’s Stamp with print text:

“PASSED BY

U [[circled]] 45756 [[/circled]] S

ARMY EXAMINER”]]

[[Censor’s hand, over stamp:]] S. G Palmer

M. of G

[Page 2 – Letter]

Dec. 1, 1944

In Belgium

Dearest Sweetheart,

I wrote you a little Vmail letter this morning, but you can't say very much in them so I thought I'd start this one. These take longer, but I'll keep writing some of each.

Your new dress sounds plenty yummy, honey. I sure would like to see you in it.

I can tell you a little bit about England now. I was in Bournemouth. It's quite famous as a summer resort. It's a little more prosperous than the rest of the country as a whole, and they really have a beautiful beach. There you can find some of the most modern architecture as well as some pretty old stuff. The hotel where I stayed was really a museum piece altho' it had been fixed up quite comfortably with showers and bathrooms.

Chuck and I found a beautiful little park which seemed to run from the beach right thru' the business

[Page 3 – Letter continued]

- 2 -

section. I can imagine that it would be a heck of a fine place to see in the summer time. England in the fall and winter is rather a bleak proposition. It's a miserable climate, and we were fortunate enough to have a fairly bright day when we snapped those pictures.

Fish and ships is a famous English meal so you can bet I really enjoyed that. There were a number of cafes nearby.

I'll probably think of things to tell you about it from time to time.

Baby dear, I love you very very much. I think of you all day long, and dream of you at night. I'm sending you millions of hugs and kisses,

Yours Always [sic],

Jack