Dearest One,

I was just thinking about my little sweetie, as I always am so thought I would say hello. There isn't much new to write about, but I want you to receive letters from me as often as possible even if they're not too newswy.

How's everything in the old home town these days? Sure will be great getting back to that good life with you, darling. You're the best and sweetest and dearest little wife in the whole wide world, and it will take us the rest of our lives to catch up on all this lovmaking.

Looks the bottom of the page is catching up to me fast. So long for now, Sweetheart.
 All my love,
 your own,
 Jack
