Dearest Sweetheart,

By this time I suppose you are back home. I would also bet heavy money that Florence begged and pleaded with you to stay longer. Is Frank still in Louisiana?

Sure would like to be travelling around with you, honey. You and I will take a month's vacation after I get back home, and we'll have a good time just going every place we want to. It really won't make much difference where we go just so we're together. I'm happy when I'm with you.

Are the trains still packed on that old Seaboard the way they used to be? Remember the site we stood all the way from Henderson to Washington? Those cars were allways hotter than a turkish bath in the summer.

How is Mr. Inge getting along? Did Carroll say anything about him in her letter?.

Is the rationing getting better or worse at home, honey? Hope everyone is able to buy enough groceries.

Well, light of my life, this isn't much of a letter, but I'll try to do better on the next one. All my love, your own,

Jack
