Dearest Sweetheart,

Here it is Sunday evening, not that it makes much difference over here. It's just another day.

Honey, I'll bet Henderson does hold a lot of memories. We sure did have some good times there. Have you seen Mrs. Turner? She's certainly a grand person.

Darling, you are the sweetest, dearest and most wonderful wife in the whole wide world. I love you so, and keep thinking how wonderful it's going to be when I can talk to you in person, and give you one of those big bear hugs, and a kiss. Well, baby here's the bottom of the page, and bed-time too, so I'll see you in my dream,
Yours always,
Jack
