Dearest Sweetheart,

Here it is Sunday evening, not that it makes much difference over here. It's just another day.

Honey, I'll bet Henderson does hold a lot of memories. We sure did have some good times there. Have you seen Mrs. Turner? She's certainly a grand person.

Darling, you are the sweetest, dearest and most wonderful wife in the whole wide world. I love you so, and keep thinking how wonderful it's going to be when I can tell you in person, and give you one of those big bear hugs, and a kiss. Well, baby here's the bottom of the page, and bed-time too, so I'll see you in my dreams.

Yours always,

Jack

Dearest Sweetheart,

Here it is Sunday evening, not that it makes much difference over here. It’s just another day.

Honey, I’ll bet Henderson does hold a lot of memories. We sure did have some good times there. Have you seen Mrs. Turner? She’s certainly a grand person.

Well, baby here’s the bottom of the page, and bed – time too, so I’ll see you in my dream,

Yours allways [sic],
