V-mail service provides a most rapid means of communication. If addressed to a place where photographing service is not available the original letter will be dispatched by the most expeditious means:

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two spaces provided. Addresses of members of the Armed Forces should show full name, complete military or naval address, including grade or rank, serial number, unit to which assigned or attached, and Army post office in care of the appropriate postmaster or appropriate fleet post office.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Inclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) V-mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others, postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if domestic air-mail service is desired when appropriate).

18

Print the complete address in plain letters in the panel below, and your return address in the space provided on the right. Use typewriter, dark ink, or dark pencil. Faint or small writing is not suitable for photographing.

Dearest Darling,

No news to write, but thought I'd say hello, anyway. I've been keeping busy, and feel O.K.

The mail situation is still snafu. Haven't had a letter from my little honey for five days.

Say, sweetie how about sending me some snapshots of yourself? I'd like to see you in person, but that would be the next best

I love you, darling. I'm always thinking of you, and the wonderful times we've had together. Sure hope it won't be long till we're together again. All my love, sweetheart, and millions of kisses, your own Jack
