

---

Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence

CAWL Archives: Second World War

---

1-6-1946

1946-01-06, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1946-01-06, Jack to Evabel" (1946). Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence. 446.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell\_collection/446

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

Subject Terms

Jack P. Bell; January 6 1946; World War 1939 1945 United States. Regimental histories 78th Signal Company; World War 1939 1945 United States. Regimental histories Theatre Services Forces European Theatre; World War 1939 1945 United States. Regimental histories 279th QM Refrigeration Company; War and civilization – History – 20th century. United States.; Nineteen Forties; War and civilization – History – 20th century Germany;

Keywords

U.S.A.; U.S. Soldiers; correspondence; Infantry; postal service; postal stamp; envelope; wife; husband; women at home; romance; homesickness; post-war hopes; Lich; Germany; recreation and entertainment; discharge; coming home; radio; music; Cleveland, OH; gift; cold weather;

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1945-01-06_003

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

T/15 John P. Bell 35052495
27th QM Ref. Co. APO169
C/6 PM New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

Lich
January 6

Darling Lover,

I've just read over the two letters I got from you last week. I hope the mail comes in better this week.

You've probably heard the news that redeployment is slowing up a bit. I think it's probably one of those temporary bottle necks so don't feel too badly about it. On a newscast this morning the announcer said that all men with fifty points or more will probably be out of the theatre by the end of February. I may be out before them as I may not be one of the last. Guess will just have to see how it works out. You know how this army operates. If you took every thing seriously you'd have a nervous breakdown.

The "Hour of Charm," is playing on the radio, and they just finished playing "Stardust."

Our theme song, sweetie. It's going to be wonderful dancing, and singing it to you darling.

We got some calendars today with our blue star commands insignia on it so I'll cut one out, and enclose it.

Darling have I reminded you lately how much I love you. Every day it seems as tho' I can't possibly love you any more, and still my love for you grows and grows. You're such a dear sweet precious lover girl, and I'm just existing till that happy day when I can take you in my arms, and never let you go. And every day that passes is one closer to that good one sweetie. I'm such a lucky fellow to have you for my own darling wife.

You said you'd bought something for me the day you were shopping in Cleveland sweetie. I've thought and thought trying to figure out what it might be, but I can't possibly imag-

me what it is.

again getting a lot of winter at home
this year aren't you honey? It's been real
cold here the past week, but so far
we haven't had much snow or stormy
weather.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and
kisses and all my love.

Your own,
Jack

[[Nick Dante 1/22/16]]

[[Bell Correspondence #3]]

[[Page 1- Envelope]]

Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
279th. QM Ref. Co. APO 169
c/o PM New York, N.Y.

Free

[[image- partial black stamp: U.S. ARMY POSTAL SERVICE A.P.O. 1946 7 JAN 169]]

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

[[Page 2- Letter]]

Lich
January 6

Darling Lover,

I've just read over the two letters I got from you last week, I hope the mail comes in better this week.

You've probably heard the news that redeployment is slowing up a bit. I think it's probably one of those temporary bottle necks so don't feel too badly about it. On a newscast this morning the announcer said that all men with fifty points or more will probably be out of the theatre by the end of February. I may be out before then as I may not be one of the last. Guess we'll just have to see how it works out. You know how this army operates. If you took everything seriously you'd have a nervous breakdown.

The, "hour of Charm," is playing on the radio, and they just finished playing, "Stardust."

[[Page 3- Letter]]

-2-

Our theme song, sweetie. It's going to be wonderful dancing, and singing it to you darling.

We got some calendars today with our blue star commando insignia on it so I'll cut one out, and enclose it.

Darling have I reminded you lately how much I love you. Every day it seems as tho' I can't possibly love you any more, and still my love for you grows and grows. You're such a dear sweet precious lover girl, and I'm just existing till that happy day when I can take you in my arms, and never let you go. And every day that passes is one closer to that good one sweetie. I'm such a lucky fellow to have you for my own darling wife.

You said you'd bought something for me the day you were shopping in Cleveland sweetie. I've thought and thought trying to figure out what it might be, but I can't possibly imagine what it is.

[[Page 4- Letter]]

-3-

You're getting a lot of winter at home
this year aren't you honey? It's been real
cold here the past week, but so far
we haven't had much snow or stormy
weather.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and
kisses, and all my love.

Your Own,
[[underline]] Jack [[/underline]]