Dearest darling,

I've moved again since I last wrote you, being in at another depot. This should be the last one before I get back to the company so you can start writing again.

Travelling is a slow, painful process in this country. Someday I'll tell you all about it.

It's warmed up a bit today, and it sure seems good. Reminds me of the days we'd go for a nice long ride.

I'll be glad when I get fairly settled again so I can write you more regularly. Meantime, tho' don't worry about me, sweetie. I'll write as often as I can.

Darling, I love you so very much. I'm just existing till the day we can be together again.

All my love, and millions of hugs and kisses.
Your always
Jack
