Prof. Margaret Dehning

Margaret Dehning, soprano, is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Vocal Studies at Chapman University. She also teaches classes in vocal pedagogy. Ms. Dehning made her debut at the age of 16, as the soprano soloist in Honegger's King David with the COTA Orchestra and Chorus in Los Angeles. At that time she was given a full scholarship to study with the distinguished soprano Alice Mock at the University of Southern California. Other teachers include Gwendolyn Koldofsky, Jan Popper, Esther Andreas and Martin Katz.

Before coming to Chapman in 1994 she taught at California State University, Stanislaus and at University of the Pacific. She continued to be in demand as a soloist in opera and oratorio. She has been the soprano soloist in every major oratorio from Bach to Vaughan Williams throughout the Western United States and Europe. Her operatic roles include Musetta in La Boheme, Susannah in Le Nozze di Figaro, Rosalinda in Die Fledermus and the heroine in Poulenc's La Voix Humaine. She has been described by reviewers as "...a singer with remarkable clarity and control...and a refreshing spirit that is a joy to hear..."

At Chapman she developed a course of study for vocal performance majors and developed guidelines for consistency throughout all the vocal studios. Ms. Dehning coordinates nine adjunct voice faculty and directs the schedule for student voice recitals and master classes. She has brought such artists as Elly Ameling, Barbara Bonney, Rodney Gilfrey, Martin Katz, Susanne Mentzer and Linda Watson to the Chapman campus.

A recipient of Chapman's "Excellence in Teaching Achievement Award", she received fellowships to study the art songs of Spanish/South American composers with Martin Katz and to travel to Poland to study the art songs of Chopin. For two summers she was invited to teach in Siuntio, Finland. Her students consistently gain entry into top graduate programs throughout the United States. Ms. Dehning's students are consistent winners in regional and national competitions, including the Regional Metropolitan Opera and leading apprentice programs such as Music Academy of the West and Santa Fe Opera. Her former students are now singing in opera houses in Europe and the United States, or have become excellent teachers in high schools and colleges.

Prof. Dehning enjoys a reputation as a respected pedagogue and clinician. She is on the executive board of the Los Angeles Chapter of the National Association of Teacher's of Singing (NATS), and is currently the secretary/treasurer of the National Foundation Board of NATS.

Just recently the Conservatory of Music student body presented Ms. Dehning with the Shaun Naidoo Legacy Award for outstanding contributions to the Hall-Musco Conservatory of Music.

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Last year we welcomed over 11,000 audience members to our performances, concerts, recitals and events, making it our best attended year ever. In addition to our student performances, our season always includes choreography, direction and concerts by our stellar faculty and visiting artists who are accomplished professionals, each with a true passion for the arts.

As a lover of the arts, you have a crucial role to play to ensure our success and the success of the students who are at the heart of all we do. It is my hope that you will help provide our students with the tools and resources they need with your gift to the Fund for Excellence.

A gift to the Fund directly supports these College priorities:
- Production costs for the 200-plus live performances of dance, music, theatre and opera the College produces each year;
- Recruitment of professional visiting artists for technique and master classes;
- Scholarships and travel funds for our student touring ensembles and conferences.

Performances like the one you are about to see are an important part of our students’ academic and artistic curriculum, exposing them to experiences that hone their artistic sensibilities. Our students graduate with more training, more experience and more professional opportunities to launch their careers in the performing arts and performing arts education.

Each one of our students will benefit from your decision to support the College. With your gift, you will be a part of a family of individuals who demonstrate, year after year, their commitment to developing the talents of young artists. I hope you join us not only because you value the arts, but because you want to invest in our next generation of artists.

Enjoy the performance, and I look forward to seeing you again at our performances throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Dale A. Merrill, Dean
