Le nozze di Figaro

Act 2 Finale – Signore di fuori son già i suonatori

By Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Directed by Dr. David Alt

Figaro.....	Andrei Bratkovski
Count	Daniel Shipley
Countess.....	Chelsea Chaves
Susanna.....	Natalie Uranga
Antonio.....	Marqis Griffith
Marcellina.....	Lizbeth Sanchez
Don Basilio.....	Eric Parker
Dr. Bartolo.....	Ben Finer

Figaro enters the Countess's chamber asking for an immediate wedding. Recovering his composure, the Count poses questions about an anonymous letter; Figaro evades the subject. Antonio charges in complaining of damage to his garden caused by someone's exit from the window of the chamber. The Count suspects it was Cherubino but Figaro claims it was he who jumped. The Count calmly questions Figaro about a paper dropped by the mysterious jumper. Prompted by the Countess and Susanna, Figaro identifies it as the page's commission, which was left with him to be sealed. The Count is perplexed, but revives when Marcellina, Basilio and Bartolo rush in demanding justice.

Fidelio

Act 1 – Duet – Jetzt, Schätzchen, Jetzt sind wir allein

By Ludwig van Beethoven

Directed by Dr. David Alt

Marzelline.....	Cristiana Franzetti
Jaquino.....	Duke Kim

Marzelline is busy with chores while Jaquino pressures her on the subject of marriage. She rejects his pleas having fallen in love with Fidelio, her father's new assistant.

L'italiana in Algeri

Act 1 Finale – Pria di dividerci da voi, signore

By Gioacchino Rossini

Directed by Dr. Peter Atherton

Isabella.....	Monica Alfredsen
Mustafâ	Andrei Bratkovski
Elvira.....	Amira Fulton
Zulma.....	Kylee Bestenlehner
Lindoro.....	Kyle Patterson
Taddeo.....	Daniel Shipley
Haly.....	Benedict Ressa

Opera Chapman Ensemble

Program

Elvira, Zulma and Lindoro enter to make their farewells to Mustafà. Astonished, Isabella recognizes her long lost lover, Lindoro. A bumbling Mustafà is confused and perplexed by their reaction to each other. Isabella cunningly announces that she could never love a man who treated his wife as Mustafà is treating Elvira. She also insists that Lindoro should remain with her. The announcement sends the entire cast into a state of delirium, their heads full of the sounds of bells, a hammer, crowing and a cannon.

La Traviata

Act 1 Opening scene – Dell’invita trascorsa è già l’ora...

By Giuseppe Verdi

Directed by Dr. Peter Atherton

Violetta..... Kylene Parks
Flora..... Keegan Brown
Marchese.....Ben Finer
Barone.....Ryan Morris
Dottore.....Alex Bodrero
Gastone..... Hayden Kellermeier
Alfredo..... Kyle Patterson

Opera Chapman Ensemble

A party is about to begin in Violetta’s house. Violetta greets her friends and guests, among whom is Alfredo Germont, a young man who has loved Violetta from afar for some time. Violetta calls for champagne for everyone and asks for a toast. Alfredo accepts the honor and sings the famous brindisi ‘Libiamo ne’ lieti calici’ repeated by Violetta and then by the entire cast.

La Bohème

Act 3 Aria and Quartet

By Giacomo Puccini

Directed by Ms. Carol Neblett

Mimi.....Jacquelyn Clements
Rodolfo.....Kevin Gino
Musetta.....Chelsea Chaves
Marcello.....Daniel Shipley

Marcello hears Musetta’s shameless laughter and hurries into the tavern. Mimi reveals her presence and takes a sad farewell of her lover. Afterwards Mimi and Rodolfo decide to remain together until the spring while Musetta and Marcello quarrel heatedly.

Susannah

Ain’t it a pretty night

By Carlisle Floyd

Directed by Ms. Carol Neblett

Susannah..... Emily Dyer
Little Bat.....Nathan Wilen
Sam.....Jerry Bartucciotto

Susannah sings of her longing to see the world, which is quickly forgotten when her brother Sam appears and entertains her with a favorite childhood song.

Program

* Scene Introductions

Artists

Peter L. Atherton, Artistic Director

Bass-baritone Peter Atherton has had the joy of performing over forty-five roles ranging from Seneca in The Coronation of Poppea to Frederick in A Little Night Music. His operatic credits include performances with the Los Angeles Opera, Seattle Opera, Baltimore Opera, Lyric Opera Cleveland, Wolf Trap Opera, Virginia Opera, San Francisco Opera Touring Division, Opera Atelier, Cairo Opera and the Operafestival of Rome and Verona. He has performed with such conductors as Leonard Bernstein, Pierre Boulez, Lucas Foss, James Conlon, Kurt Herbert Adler, David Effron and Myung-Whun Chung. Mr. Atherton's versatility as a singing-actor enabled him to perform six different roles in The Phantom of the Opera in New York, Los Angeles and Toronto.

Dr. Atherton holds the Robert and Norma Lineberger Endowed Chair in Music at Chapman University, is Director of Operatic Studies and Associate Professor of Voice in the Conservatory of Music. He is a member of the Artistic Board of Directors of Operafestival di Roma. Dr. Atherton will direct a new production of Verdi's Rigoletto for the Natchez Arts Festival in 2013 and next summer he will join the faculty for the Frost School of Music Salzburg Festival Program in Salzburg, Austria.

Carol Neblett, Associate Director

One of America's greatest and most acclaimed sopranos, Carol Neblett's career has spanned over forty years, performing opera's most coveted roles in the world's greatest opera houses, including the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala, Covent Garden, San Francisco Opera, Salzburg, Hamburg and Chicago Lyric Opera.

Ms. Neblett made her operatic debut in 1969 with the New York City Opera as Musetta, in La Boheme. Amidst huge acclaim, she performed over twenty-five leading roles with the company over the next five years. Critical triumphs included the dual roles of Margherita and Helen of Troy in Boito's Mefistofele. Her performance of Korngold's Die Tote Stadt was so successful that it was subsequently recorded with the renowned Erich Leinsdorf conducting, and won a number of coveted awards, including a Grammy in 1975.

Ms. Neblett's signature roles include Puccini's Tosca as well as Minnie in The Girl of the Golden West. In 1976 she made her debut at the Lyric Opera of Chicago as Tosca with Luciano Pavarotti, and has sung this role more than 200 times. Ms. Neblett was invited to sing Minnie with Placido Domingo for Queen Elizabeth's 25th Jubilee Celebration at Covent Garden, which was filmed live as well as recorded.

Throughout the world's major opera houses, Ms. Neblett has sung more than eighty-five leading roles and more than 100 oratorio and symphonic works.

Ms. Neblett is currently on the vocal staff as Artist-in-Residence at Chapman University. She conducts master classes for young artist programs worldwide, concentrating on role preparation for the professional singer, as well as maintaining a private studio in the Los Angeles area.

Artists

David Alt, Assistant Director

David Alt recently moved to Southern California after teaching for 21 years as Professor of Voice, Chairman of the Department of Vocal Performance and Program Director for Musical Theatre in the Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. He received his Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Iowa and a Certificate from the Conservatoire de Musique, Geneve, Switzerland. Alt studied opera with Wesley Balk at the Minnesota Opera Institute and voice with French baritone Gerard Souzay and soprano Maralin Niska.

Nominated for a Carbonnel Award for Best Actor in a South Florida Regional Showcase for his work in Brecht on Brecht, Alt has been seen in the South Florida area in productions of Don Juan in Hell, The Merry Widow, The Barber of Seville, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Berlin to Broadway with Kurt Weill, Company, Love Letters, Later Life and Far East in addition to revues of the music of Bernstein, Coward, Gershwin, Berlin, Sondheim and Weill. He also has performed with the New World Symphony, the New York Philharmonic, the Miami Bach Society, the Chamber Singers of Iowa City Bach Festival, the St. Louis Muni Opera, the Quad City (IL) Symphony, the Southeast Iowa Symphony, the Santa Fe Desert Chorale, the Carmel (CA) Bach Festival, and New Theatre in Coral Gables (FL). Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Thank you for joining us for the College of Performing Arts' production of 2012: An Opera Odyssey, The Journey Continues. On behalf of our faculty, staff and students, I am grateful to all the members of our College of Performing Arts family for the support that allows us to continue to present great educational opportunities like the one you are about to see. This performance is another example of our commitment to producing works that showcase the talents of our students for the community, as well as providing our students with learning experiences that take them outside the traditional classroom.

Preparing the next generation of performers and artists takes the support of all of us who are passionate about the performing arts and who value its presence in our lives. As a supporter of the arts, you have a crucial role to play to ensure the success of the College of Performing Arts and the students who are at the heart of all we do. Your financial support allows the College of Performing Arts to provide the kind of educational and performing opportunities crucial to our students' growth into artists. Please join our community of loyal alumni, parents and community partners devoted to developing the talents of the next generation of artists with a gift to the Fund for Excellence.

The Fund for Excellence supports College of Performing Arts initiatives that enhance our students' experience. Your gift to the Fund for Excellence has a tremendous impact on all of our programs by:

- Providing our students with opportunities to work with professional artists;
- Ensuring top notch community performances of classic and contemporary art;
- Strengthening our programs by maintaining our ability to attract the brightest and most talented students from across the country.

No matter what level you choose to support the College of Performing Arts, you will be a part of a family of individuals who demonstrate, year after year, that they are fully committed to developing the talents of young artists. And most importantly, I hope you make your gift because you value the arts and want to invest in our next generation of artists.

Enjoy the performance, and I look forward to seeing you again throughout the season.

Sincerely,

Dale A. Merrill, Dean

Invest in our next generation of artists.

The College of Performing Arts brings you the most vital and powerful part of our curriculum – live performances of dance, music and theatre. This extraordinary hands-on training for our next generation of artists is possible only through your generosity.

By helping to maintain the resources essential to our curriculum, you allow the College to offer a dynamic learning environment that nurtures the creativity of our students with one-on-one training, ensuring they master their craft. We can produce exceptional performances like what you are about to see only with support from people committed to excellence in performing arts. People just like you.

Help support the College of Performing Arts' talented young students as they transform into tomorrow's professional artists. To learn more about giving to the College of Performing Arts, please contact Liz Crozer, Director of Development, at (714) 289-2085 or crozer@chapman.edu.
