

Submission Form and Author Agreement for Works with Owned Copyright

Use this form for Works where you own the copyright. If you would like to submit multiple works of this type using one form, please contact the Coordinator of Scholarly Communications.

I, _____, hereby grant Chapman University a worldwide, nonexclusive, royalty-free license to the Work entitled with the rights to digitize, distribute, and publicly display the work in Chapman University Digital Commons in any way that furthers the educational, research, and public service purposes of Chapman University.

I represent and warrant for the benefit of Chapman University that:

1. I have the full power and authority to enter into this agreement.
2. If the Work includes any photos, videos, data, interviews, or other accompanying material that is not original work by the author(s), I have properly cited them and obtained the necessary permissions to include them in Chapman University Digital Commons.
3. I have not made, nor will I make, any contract or commitment that would be contrary to the terms of this agreement.

Chapman University Digital Commons is intended to serve as a permanent repository and dissemination tool of the scholarly and creative work of Chapman University. I understand that, once deposited, the Work will remain in Chapman University Digital Commons unless withdrawal is requested by the author(s) or it is shown that the work was deposited in breach of copyright or other intellectual property rights or that it contains content not allowed according to the submission policies. A full bibliographic citation of the work will remain in Chapman University Digital Commons with a note regarding the removal.

Information about the Work

Co-authors (names and emails): _____

It is your responsibility to inform any co-authors that the Work is being submitted to the repository. It is encouraged that you obtain the permission of all co-authors.

Who holds the copyright to this Work? _____

Context Statement (Optional)

One or two sentences to give a fuller picture of the background of the work. For example, where a presentation was made, the intended audience for unpublished works, or previous publication information.

Three to five keywords that describe the content of the material

Abstract (If longer than form allows, please email separately to Coordinator of Scholarly Communications.)

Has the Work been peer-reviewed? Yes No

Are you including any supplementary files? Images Text Other: _____
(Note: Supplementary files will be publicly accessible. We can also upload related files under a separate record and add links to show the relationships between them and the main Work.)

Do you wish to embargo the work? Yes No
If so, until what date? _____

Terms of use for users accessing the Work in the Repository

Users accessing the site may view, download, or print any Work found in the Repository in accordance with the terms of fair use (Title 17, §107 U.S.C.) or other applicable law. If you hold the copyright to this Work, you may designate a more specific Creative Commons license from the list below to apply to your Work:

Attribution (CC-BY)

Attribution-ShareAlike (CC-BY-SA)

Attribution-NonCommercial (CC-BY-NC)

Attribution-NonComm-ShareAlike (CC-BY-NC-SA)

Attribution-No Derivatives (CC-BY-ND)

Attribution-NonComm-NoDeriv (CC-BY-NC-ND)

Find more information about what each Creative Commons license allows here. You can also use this handy tool to determine which license is right for you.

I certify that I have read the Submission Policies and Guidelines for Chapman University Digital Commons and agree to the terms of this agreement.

Signature(s) _____

Name(s) _____

Date _____ Email(s) _____

Department/Campus Unit _____