

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Mack Franklin First World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: First World War

2-25-1919

1919-02-25, Mack to Lora

Mack E. Franklin

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/mfranklin_collection

Recommended Citation

Franklin, Mack E., "1919-02-25, Mack to Lora" (1919). Mack Franklin First World War Correspondence Collection. 1.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/mfranklin_collection/1

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mack Franklin First World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1919-02-25, Mack to Lora

Keywords

personal narrative, correspondence, February 1919, Eastern Front, Germany, United States, U.S.A, women, foreign occupation, homesickness, postal service, camaraderie, children, personal stories, family, casualties, death, health and sickness, soldiers, natives, thoughts on the enemy, Germans, Koblenz, Coblenz, Rhine, boredom, morale, moving pictures, film, cinema, movies, post-war conditions, post-war hopes, reparation, self-determination, morale, occupation, civilians, death

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_ Franklin _worldwarone_1919-02-25_001

February 25. 1919
Troop "H" 3rd U.S. Cav
Army of Occupation
in Germany.

Dear Mrs Stanley: I received your most welcome letter and I was certainly glad to hear from you, I have wrote to you a quite a few letters, but there was no reply, so I thought, perhaps you moved, or my letters were simply getting lost on the way to the States. I enquired a few times of M whether he received any letters from you,

But Al and I were lucky so far, both of us enjoying the best of health. You wished it to know, how do I like ^{the} German people, so there is one thing I can write to you, I have never liked the German people, and I don't like them ext. We are stationed right across a town called Coblenz near the Rhine. With the exception of seeing moving pictures once in while, it is very lousome over here, I'd rather live in and he told me²⁻ that he haven't heard ~~from~~ you for a quite while.

But I was very glad, when I received your last letter, to hear that you and your husband and your 'kiddies' are in good health.
I was sorry to learn of your father's death after the "flu" and the unfortunate accident of your cousin, which caused his death, we have also a quite a few cases of the "flu" over here, which proved to be fatal for some of the soldiers.

⁻⁴⁻
a small village in the old B. S. A. then be stationed in any foreign country.

If I ever get back to the old B. S. A. I will make up for all the lost time over here.

Hoping to hear from you as soon as possible

Respectively yours
Wm. E. Franklin

[PRIVATE MACK E. FRANKLIN LETTER]

[Page 1 – Letter]

February 25, 1919
Troop “K” 3rd U.S. Cav
Army of Occupation
in Germany

Dear Mrs Stanley: I recei – ved your most welcome letter and I was certainly glad to hear from you, I have wrote
to you a quite a few letters, but there was no reply, so I thought,
perhaps you moved, or my letters
were simply getting lost on the way to the States. I inquired a few times of Al whether he received any letters from you,

[Page 2 – Letter continued]

- 2 -

and he told me that he havent heard  you for a quite while.
But I was sure glad, when I received your last letter, to hear
that you and your husband and
your “kiddies,” are in good health,
I was sorry to learn of your fathers death of the “flu” and
the unfortunate accident
of your cousin, which caused
his death, we have also a
quite a few cases of the “flu”
over here, which proved to be
fatal for some of the soldiers.

[Page 3 – Letter continued]

- 3 -

But Al and I were lucky
so far, both of us enjoying
the best of health. You wished it to know, how do I
like ^{the} German people, so there is one thing I can write to you
I have never liked the German people, and I dont like them yet. We are stationed right across a town called Coblenz
near the Rhine. With the exceptions of seeing moving pictures once in a while, it is very lonesome over here. I'd rather live in

[Page 4 – Letter continued]

- 4 -

a small village in the old U.S.A. then be stationed in any foreign country.
If I ever get back to the old U.S.A. I will make up for all the lost time over
here.

Hoping to hear from
you as soon as possible

Respectively yours

Mack E. Franklin