Henri Temianka correspondence, Gurs

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

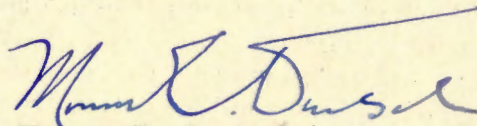

August 25, 1941

San Francisco Committee for Service to Emigres
1600 Scott Street
San Francisco, California

Gentlemen:

Mr. Henri Temianka has been well-known to me for a considerable period of time. He is a most distinguished musician and his performances have evoked the greatest of enthusiasm. He has appeared upon the campus of the University and is about to go to Pittsburgh as Concert Master of the Symphony Orchestra in that city. Personally, I am confident that he is a man of highest character and reliability. It has been a pleasure to claim him as a friend and I indorse him heartily.

Very sincerely yours,

Monroe E. Deutsch
Vice-President and Provost
