

10-21-1918

Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #02

H. Eggeling

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Eggeling, H., "Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #02" (1918). Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence. 2.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling\_collection/2

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

Subject Terms

Charles Eggeling; October 21, 1918; World War 1914 1918 United States. Army American Expeditionary Forces; World War 1914 1918 United States. Regimental histories Coast Artillery; Regimental histories 111th Machine Gun Battalion; World War 1914 1918 United States. Influenza Epidemic. 1918-1919;

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, correspondence, Western Front, Infantry, artillery, France, father, Brooklyn, New York, going home, health and sickness, mother, family, death, veteran, war bonds, speeches

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Eggeling_worldwarone_1918-10-21_024

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

Brooklyn October 21st - 1918

Dear Charlie

Received your letter you sent September 22nd mama expected to receive your Card. Stating what you wanted, Send it as soon as you can, we were very glad to here that you were in good health and were getting along nicely.
Charlie they were having a great time over the Liberty Loan Bonds we have take all together over $600. and according to reports the Loan has reached to to nearly $7,000,000,000, so you see we have all done our bit. there has been a lot of speeches and plenty of excitement.
Charlie I am very sorry to let you know that Matty Shields is very sick he has been sick for nearly 6 week and is still in Bed, and poor Mimie

his wife has got the Biller end of it she nursed him, untill she wore her self out untill she was only two day sick and she died last Tuesday and was buried last Friday.

The People in the States are having quite a time with the new Plague called the Spanish Influenza which they say came from Spain. Charlie I have got the House all settled for
we will not be able to get into it untill next April. Lulu and little Marge stopped over with mama for a week. Charlie Gravine is just the same Mama is feeling all right and I for a Grand Army Man am feeling pretty good
hoping this will find you in good health
I must now come to a close

From your loving Father and Mother
H. Eggeling

O. 175 Amity St

[[Eggeling Correspondence #24]]

[[Page 1-Letter]]

Brooklyn October 21st 1918

Dear Charlie

Received your letter you sent
September 22nd. Mama expected to receive your Card. Stating what you wanted.
Send it as soon as you can. We were very glad to hear that you were in good health and were getting along nicely.
Charlie they were having a great time
Over the Liberty Loan Bonds we have taken all together over $600. and according to reports the Loan had reached to nearly $7,000,000,000 so you see we have all done our bit. There has been a lot of speeches and plenty of excitement
Charlie I am very sorry to let you know
that Matty Shields is very sick he has been sick for nearly 6 weeks and is still in bed. and poor Minnie

[[Page 2-Letter]]

His wife has got the Biller end of it she nursed him until she wore her self out untill she was only two days sick and she died last Tuesday
and was buried last Friday.
The People in the States are having
quite a time with the new Plague
Called Spanish Influenza wich
they say came from Spain. Charlie
I have got the House all settled for
we will not be able to get into it untill
next April. Lulu and little Marge stopped
over with mama for a week. Charlie Grannie is just the same Mama is feeling all right. And I for a grand Army Man am feeling pretty good
hoping this will find you in good health.
I must now come to a close
From your loving Father and Mother
H. Eggleling
O. 175 Amity St.