

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: First World War

6-23-1918

1918-06-23, Charles to Mary

Charles W. Earley

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/cwearley_collection

Recommended Citation

Earley, Charles W., "1918-06-23, Charles to Mary" (1918). Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence Collection. 2.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/cwearley_collection/2

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1918-06-23, Charles to Mary

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, correspondence, Infantry, Western Front, artillery, France, Massachusetts, romance, soldier slang, Worcester, MA, women at home, german soldiers, patriotism, nationalism, racial slur, racial stereotype, photograph, prisoners of war, homesickness, postwar hopes, rainy weather

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_ Earley _worldwarone_1918-06-23_002

June 23 201

Battery E 56th art
C.A.C. a 8 France
american P.O 723

my own dearest Love M. a. c

Just a few lines in ansr to your dear letter which I received June 22 please send me one of your little pictures a Button type I suppose things looks better in year old america now since our Boys is bring those those of. hums into it — you spoke about the Germans capturing 15,000 prisoners it is a of. lie the papers over there always wanted to make things Bigger, just to sell their stock you know that there is german propaganda in those offices whose papers are printed and the sooner the get rid of it the better for good loving americans I would not trust a german american no more than I would a german Boer they are a lot of D. Cut throats but we will make many of them bite the dust before we come home I hope to god we will, how is every one home and how are you do you be sick now I suppose you get the Blues once in a while well we all get them once in a while may be the will all stop when I see you again I wish I

See you now but I do I told you many times that when I write to you I seem to be talking to you well I will some day say what is the matter with worcester I never heard from there and I told you just one letter well they may forget one but you wont I am longing for the day that this war will end so I can come back to your ~~see~~ arms once more you said you were coming to meet me I hope you will the same as you come to Worcester, my poor old age

I will go home some day
dear now my dear loving Wife I hope you wont be bored for we will make those little amercous get uniform praise the A. E. F. of 1918 in France. now dont you think I said enough I will write soon again today is Sunday a wet day. so I will close with all my love and +++ to my own loving Wife m. & e God be with you may me pray for me dearest God Bless you sweetheart

[[Earley Correspondence #5]]

[[Page 1-Letter]]

June 23rd

Battery E 56th art.
C.a.C. A E F France
american P.O. 723

My own dearest Love Ma. C

Just a few lines in ansr to your [[o---?]]
letter which I received June 22.
please send me one of your little
pictures a Button type I suppose things looks better in dear old america now since our Boys is trying[[?]] those those f. huns into H--- you spoke about the Germans
capturing 15,000 prisoners it is a f. lie the papers over there always wanted to make things
Bigger. Just to sell their stock

[[Page 2-Letter]]

you know that there is German
propaganda in those offices where those papers are printed and the sooner they get rid of it the better for good loving Americans.
I would not trust a German
American no more than I would a German Born . They are a lot of D. Cutthroats but we will
make many of them bite the dust
before we Come home. I hope to
God we will, how is every one home
and how are you Do you be [[sick?]] now I suppose you set the Blues once in a while. well we all set them once in a while may be they will all stop when I see you again I wish I

[[Page 3-Letter]]

See you now but I do I told you
many times that when I write
to you I seem to be talking to
you. well I will some Day say
what is the matter with worcester I never heard from there since I told you just one better well they may forget me but you wont I am longing for the Day that this war will end
So I Can Come back to your [[strikethrough]] arsm[[/strikethrough]] arms once more you said you were Comming to meet me I hope you will the some as you Come to Worcester, my poor Mayme

[[Page 4-Letter]]

I will go home some Day
Dear now my dear loving
wife I hope you wont be lonesome for we will make those little americans [[one word]] uniform praise the A. E. F. of 1918 in France. now dont you think I
said enough I will write soon
again today is Sunday a
wet Day. So I will Close with all my love and XXX to my own lovin Wife m.a.c. E God be with you Mayme
Pray for me dearest God
Bless you sweetheart