Monday Night

Hello again, dear little girl:-

Here I am baby, arrived safely at 7:00 this evening <sup>and</sup> had word at depot to go to this club where I found all the fellows. Well, I've had a lot of explaining to do, and now just have time to write my little sweetheart <sup>and</sup> then entrain again at 8:50 for my camp. We will arrive there about noon tomorrow.

This sure looks like some town baby girl. One of the largest depots in the world here - its sure a bear. But coming up town here on the car I couldn't help noticing how Dark it was - no lights on any of the streets - looks poverty stricken. I suppose by daylight it would look different.

Have been across Kansas today - looks prosperous with its large grain fields <sup>and</sup> corn. From here we go south across Mo. <sup>and</sup> into Ark. Well, I'm seeing a little country, anyway.

The fellows are leaving now, dear, ~~so~~ and they swear they'll take me with them this time. So goodnight, little sweetheart. Your boy just loves you every minute.
