Dear Mom -

Thursday, Dec. 2

No mail from you for quite a while now. There's not much happening here. We had Gary Cooper, Phyllis Burt, and the Mermaid in person and they put on a show. It was fair.

Otherwise except for movies (and all old ones) three times a week, there's no amusement at all.

The food situation is still the same - rotten. I'm getting so tired of stew and corned beef.

The heat is still terrific but I'm getting used to it. I'm feeling okay physically, but I'm tired to death. The monotony is really driving me nuts.

Tell Frances I'm starting on a bracelet for her. The one I sent Pearl. I don't know how long it will take to finish it but she'll get it eventually.

Think all for now. Take care of yourself. Love to Frances

Love

Dear Frances -

Friday, Dec 3rd

Received 2 packages from you last night - one from Kuen's and one from Lofe. Thank loads. I'll sure have enough candy for a long time. Surprisingly enough, the chocolates arrived in perfect condition.

I also received a package from Shirley.

I haven't received any mail from you in quite a while. I'm used to getting mail every other day from you. I'll probably get a batch all at one time.

I'm working on a bracelet for you, like the one Pearl has. Do you like it? I don't know when I'll be finished with it but as soon as I am, I'll send it on to you. Did you ever receive those gloves? I'm more or less convinced that the store never mailed them. I'm going to write to them and inquire. I still have my receipt.

Nothing much happening here. Still the same old grand. Give my love to Mom.

Love

Harvee
