My dear Temianka,

This note will acknowledge your letter of October 25th. I hope very much that you had an encouraging reply from the State Department before you came East.

My legal engagements take me to Washington and New York practically every week. I stay at the University Club in New York, and the Mayflower in Washington. I hope we may meet during your stay in the East.

With every good wish, believe me,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Henri Temianka
