Sunday, Dec 12th

Dear Mom & Frances.

Received a couple of v-mail letters from you, one as late as the 28th of November. That was bus time. But please don't write v-mail if you can help it. I just don't like to receive them. It takes air mail a bit longer to get here - but it's so much nicer to receive. V-mail seems to be so impersonal. I don't mind waiting the extra time for the air-mail. I've written Pearl the same thing. If there's something you want to get to me quickly then use the v-mail. I haven't had any letters from either of you dated Nov 20th so I still don't know if you received that check. I know Pearl got hers on the 20th, as I presume you got yours about the same time. Whenever you do get those checks will you please drop me a line to let me know they arrived all right.

There's not much happening here - no news at all. It's hot and it rains - that's about all.

Take care of yourselves. All my love,

Harold
