Dear Bill,

How's everything in the home town? O.K. I hope.

I will say I miss that Iowa weather even if it does get cold sometimes. The weather here is dry and cool. As yet we have had no snow or zero temperatures. Not saying much for the wind and dust or sage brush.

We are only about three miles from Cheyenne so that isn't so bad. We can ride the bus to town for 10¢ or a taxi for 2.0¢.

I haven't been able to go out and do any drinking yet

but there is another Saturday night to come.

Well, it's almost time
for lights out so I'll close while I can see to write.

So Long.
