Dear Brother + all!

I received your letter and was glad to hear from you once again. I am well and hope this finds you all in the best of Health. well I am still riding the waves as you say Ha. Ha. well how do you like the news on the radio now? we have our big boys in there giving them Hell now. and we are not going to let up untill the Dam japs say uncle, Salute abraham. Ha. Ha. well I am glad to hear you are still working five + half days yet. that is enough for you how about it? you said you would have the bushes cut so you tell Jo what it cost and she will pay you. yes do send me a picture of my Ranch as I would like to see if it still looks the same Ha. Ha. yes about the tapes on the wood lot did you pay them if you did tell Jo what our share of it is and she will pay you. you said about the bushes getting ahead of me yes you will find he wont do more than he has to. I told meda she could have the Hay again this year that will help her with the feed a little wont it? have you saw old abe of late Jo told me the way he talk he like it at winebunners well I am glad to hear that. you said you were eating things out of the garden boy I could go for some of them my self Ha. Ha. maybe I will get home in time to get a ear of corn salute abraham well I suppose this will be all for this time write when you can. with Love to all from. Pete.
