1-1-1918

Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence #6

Charles W. Earley

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/cwearley_collection

Recommended Citation Earley, Charles W., "Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence #6" (1918). Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence Collection. 6. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/cwearley_collection/6

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles W. Earley First World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
my dears love mayne

just a few lines at last we have arrived safe somewhere in france and it is a beautiful country for all of if we seen and you know in your heart I can't tell you anything in this letter not that I'm afraid of you but those letters goes through a good many hands before the reach you and God knows we need all the secrecy we can set from those god damn brits say a little prayer for me we will win our beloved america never was beaten yet and God will be with his born americans solders once more to push them on to victory Godb with your dear tell willies wife you heard from me I will keep in your picture with me at all times dear and if I am killed it will be with me just the same we will face those surgery hunts with the spirit of our american freedom in our hearts and we will drive them before us into Berlin before we come back please only soon as fast as you get it now the address is Chas W Earley Galley 566 artillery A E F France via New York and write on one side of the paper I will send your postals soon it is dark and I can't see any more I am writing this on one side by by love Fred My Deares Love Mayme

Just a few lines at last we have arrived safe somewhere in France and it is a Beautiful Country for all of it we seen and you know in your heart I can’t tell you anything in this letter not that I am afraid of you but those letters goes through a good many hands before they reach you and God Knows we need all the Secrecy we can get from those g d Germans but say a little prayer for me we will win our beloved america never was beaten yet and God will be with his Brave Americans soldiers once move to push them on to victory God be 2

with you  Dear tell Willies wife you heard from me I will keep your picture with me at all times  Dear and if I am Killed it will be with me just the same we will face those murdering huns with the spirit of our american freedom in our hearts and we will drive them before us into Berlin before we come back  Please ansr soon as fast as you set it now the address is Chas W Earley Battery E 56th artillery A. E. F.
France via New York and write on one side of the paper I will send you some postals soon it is Dark and I can’t see any more I am writing this out side. bye bye love XXXX it is summer love