Dear Father,

We arrived here after my tiresome march of 35 miles yesterday evening and was paid after Dark. I send you by express $100. The Capt paid me $25 00 and George 20 and I send you the rest. Out of my 2 month pay Jimmie sends one. Though I do not know how much I have very little time to write it is your O'clock in the morning and we march at 9 a.m. Nashville. We will get there about Tuesday and before I am very anxious.
Dear Sir,

I am glad to have received your letter and your news from home. I hope all is well with you and your family. I am looking forward to your return.

Yours truly,
