my Darling,

O h, how I hate to write these kind of letters but, the time always comes when one must. The reason I am writing this is because I want to tell you that perhaps it would be best if you did not come down on Wed., you see my dear kind of son anyway so, my darling, this is so long until, I hope very soon, and try to make it very soon, sweetheart, no, don't worry, I want come out to O Berlin to see you, I have some will power left in me and please don't come to Elyria to see me or try to get in touch with me because it will be too hard on both of us.

O h, Jack, I love you so much, but sweetheart it is the only way out and maybe this will break the jinx. So you just keep your chin up and smile and so will I. and everything will come out for the best. I know it well.

So this means so long until in the near future, Remember I'm backing you in everything — Always, your own, Fink.

[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE - EVABEL COLLECTION SEPT 1936 – AUG 1937 #2]

My Darling,

Oh, how I hate to write these kind of letters but, the times always comes when one must.
The reason I am writing this is because I want to tell you that perhaps it would be best if you did not come down on Wed. You see my dad is kind of sore anyway so, my darling, this is so long until, I hope, very soon. And try to make it very soon, sweet – heart, No, don't worry, I won't come out to Oberlin to see you, I have some will power left in me, an[d] please don't come to Elyria to see me or try to get in touch with me because it will be too hard on both of us.

Oh, Jack, I love you so much, but sweetheart it is the only way out and maybe this will break the jinx. So you just keep your chin up and smile and so will I. And everything will come out for the best. I know it will.

So this means so long until in the near future. Remember
I'm backing you in everything --- Always, your own,

Fink.
