Henri Temianka correspondence, Gurs

FRENCH AMBASSADOR
SPAIN

Madrid, Spain
April 23, 1941

My dear Colleague:

I have just received your letter in regard to the family of Mr. Henri Temianka, and knowing the interest which you take in this young man, I have been studying the possibility of speeding up the necessary formalities for the voyage of Mr. and Mrs. Temianka.

Nevertheless, I cannot hide from you the fact that not being able to intervene officially in favor of the interested parties because of their nationality, it will be necessary for me to wait for a favorable occasion to effect an official proceeding in their favor.

I will do it with pleasure when the opportunity presents itself.

Please accept, my dear Colleague, the expression of my distinguished and cordial sentiments.

Francois Pietri
