3-27-1918

Dorothy Hornberger First World War
Correspondence #09

Clarence Lindstadt

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/dhornberger_collection

Recommended Citation
Lindstadt, Clarence, "Dorothy Hornberger First World War Correspondence #09" (1918). Dorothy Hornberger First World War Correspondence Collection. 9.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/dhornberger_collection/9

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Dorothy Hornberger First World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Miss Edith Hambeger
1022 E. 13th St.
Davenport, Iowa
March 27, 1944

Dear Dad:

I was just stealing a little time to write you, your most welcome letter. How is everybody at home? I hope you all are well.

I'm just under the weather, and the sleeping in my right ear has given me fevers that seem to bring back old memories. The beautiful days just set me wild, and with grand efforts to keep up the right thoughts, I'm glad you never feel those days.

Dad, you may some times.
you agree not to tell "shh"

Yes, I'll have given up all hope of coming to Davenport. Perhaps because I'll only tell you, but you can probably guess. But after the "scrap" is over, I'll write every day then. I promise still expect to take in a good dance with you. Do you agree for one. Last May, she is missing half her life. Don't you think so. Well Bob. I wish you could keep my present to copy. Until things are all off you. For awhile to keep courage. Don't get good... and have a good time and now hoping you'll all get Aged safely. Well, close with the bestest regards to you all.

Chas.

Tell all the folks. David. Hello
Miss Dorothy Hornberger
1022 E 13th St.
Davenport
Iowa
Dear Dorothy

Am just stealing a little time, to ans., your most welcome letter.

How is everybody at home
I hope you are all well.

Am just under the weather yet,
the hearing in my right ear has gone bad, been that way for about 3 wks.

Gee these beautiful days just set me wild, and such grand moonlight nights. It seems to bring back old memories any way these nights haunt me.

Did you ever feel that way
Dot? You may sometime
you can never tell “ha ha”

Well Dot I have given up all hope of coming to Davenport or home, because – well – I can’t tell you, but you can probably guess.

But after the “scrap” is over I’ll visit everybody then ‘ha ha’

But I still want to take in a good dance with you Dot. so save it for me.

Don’t Marg dance? Gee she is missing half her life. dont [sic] you think so.

Well Dot. I wish I could keep my promise to come, but my plans are all off now, for awhile so hell courage. Now be good, and have a good time, and how hoping you are all well and happy

I will close, with the very best regards to you all.

Clarence.

Tell all the folks I said hello