

3-13-1945

1945-03-13, Walter to Florence

Walter Keeler

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wkeeler_collection

Recommended Citation

Keeler, Walter, "1945-03-13, Walter to Florence" (1945). Walter Keeler Second World War correspondence. 10.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wkeeler_collection/10

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Walter Keeler Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

War and civilization -- History -- 20th century; War and society -- History -- 20th century; World War 1939 1945; World War II; World World Two

Keywords

correspondence, Florence Messner, 1945, Tonopah, Los Angeles, romance, loneliness, love, women at home, health, travel, openness

Identifier

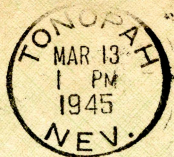

2016.134.w.r_010

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

1/Sgt. Walter Keller - 36632626
42nd. Base Unit - Sqn. "F"
T.A.A.F. Tonopah, Nevada

Free

AIR BASE
BR.

Florence Mesner
118 So. Virgil Avenue
Los Angeles 4, California

March 12, 1945

Wello Sweetheart:

I feel so very nice today after talking to you early this morning. You were such a Dear especially when you told me you wanted to be with me during my forthcoming furlough. Your letter, which I received yesterday, was wholly different than the previous one in that you were not as cold in it. It is now 1:00 P.M. and at the present time I'm answering all my correspondence. Naturally I must include a letter to you too.

I'm happy to hear you are finally getting some of that much earned rest. I got a kick out of your description of moving from one dresser to another - it's so typical of our habits. I know how you feel about your little castle since that is what it is to you - isn't it Dear? So you are a nut on the graphic arts, well that makes two of us. In fact when I had my home I often framed reproductions of famous paintings or exceptional photographs. My favorite is the "Mona Lisa" with her haunting face which is so expressive - it has every individual woman as well as all the women expressed in one face.

2
Last Tuesday, when coming back from L. A., we stopped to eat in Bishop at the Bamboo Cafe. There I noticed a beautiful pen and ink drawing of a Western scene. I found out it was the work of a dishwasher in the restaurant so I ordered one, which, when he sends it to me I will bring along with me.

How it's wonderful when
a grown person can still blush
when being kidded about someone.
It shows so much character and is expressive of a deep feeling about the person concerned. Thank you for blushing Dear. Do I want to spend my fuclough with you? Of course

I do Dear - why the question and question marks in your letter. Will you wake up Dear and realize what I really think and how I feel about you - please.

No I don't think you are too outspoken in your letters, in fact, I believe you hesitate to write what you really want to. Please don't be that way Dear.

Will close now Darling and as you must know by this time you are and will be in my dreams and thoughts always. Love and kisses Sweet.

Lovingly
Walter

P.S. Please write often as I am doing. Soon you'll get sick and tired of my writing you so often. I hope not.

XXXXXXXXXXXX

I spell your last name correctly now - don't I?

[[Kristina Agopian 7/26/2017]]
[[Walter Keeler Correspondence
Letter #010]]

[[Page 1-Envelope Front]]

T/Sgt. Walter Keeler-36632626

Free

422nd Base Unit- Sqdn. "F"

[[text: AIR BASE BR.]]

T.A.A.F Tonopah, Nevada

[[image- black circular stamp:

TONOPAH NEV.

MAR 13

1 PM

1945]]

Florence Mesner
118 So. Virgil Avenue
Los Angeles 4, California

[[Page 2 – Envelope Back]]

[[image- inverted black circular stamp:

[[image- inverted black circular stamp:

TONOPAH NEV.

MAR 13

1 PM

1945]]

TONOPAH NEV.

MAR 13

1 PM

1945]]

[[Page 3 – Letter]]

March 12, 1945

Hello Sweetheart:

I feel so very nice today after talking to you early this morning. You were such a Dear especially when you told me you wanted to be with me during my forthcoming furlough. Your letter, which I received yesterday, was wholly different than the previous one in that you were not as cold in it. It is now 1:00 P.M. and at the present time I'm answering all correspondence. Naturally I must include a letter to you too.

I'm happy to hear you are finally getting some of that much earned rest. I got a kick out of your description of moving from one dresser to another – it's so typical of our habits. I know how you feel about your little castle since that is what it is to you – isn't it Dear? So you are a nut on the graphic arts, well that makes two of us. In fact when I had my home I often framed reproductions of famous paintings or exceptional photographs. My favorite is the “Mona Lisa” with her haunting face which is so expressive – it has every individual woman as well as all the women expressed in one face. Last Tuesday, when coming back from L.A., we stopped to eat in Bishop at The Rainbow Cafe. There I noticed a beautiful pen and ink drawing of a Western scene. I found out it was the work of a dishwasher in the restaurant so I ordered-one, which, when he sends it to me I will bring along with me.

[[Page 4 – Letter]]

[[underline]] 2 [[/underline]]

Honey its wonderful when a grown person van still blush when being kidded about someone. It shows so much character and it expressive of a deep feeling about the person concerned. Thank you for blushing Dear. Do I want to spend my furlough with you? Of course

[[Page 5 – Letter]]

[[underline]] 3 [[/underline]]

I do Dear – why the question and question marks in your letter.

Will you wake up Dear and realize what I really think and how I feel about you – please.

No I don't think you are too outspoken in you letters, in fact, I believe you hesitate to write what you really want to. Please don't be that way Dear.

Will close now Darling and as you must know by this time you are and will be in my dreams and thoughts always.

Love and kisses Sweet.

Lovingly

[[underline]] Walter [[/underline]]

P.S. Please write often as I am doing. Soon you'll get sick and tired of my writing you so often. I hope not. xxxxxxxxxx

I spell your last name correctly

now –don't I?