Dear Carole

Greetings once again from the rice paddy wonderland. In case you didn't notice on the envelope it's now Lance Corporal Wagoner, oh well one-step closer to Commandant, also more money (now that's a mercenary thought, if I ever heard one).

Now, about your latest addition to the backs of envelopes. No offense or anything but couldn't you go back to just plain old wax. What I mean is, the flag is groovy, and all that, but it's a little embarrassing to have to salute a letter before you can open it. Also in said letter you made a reference to our being fierce, actually I'm very sweet and lovable, I like small animals and children and I have a healthy respect for the larger ones (lions, tigers, bears, Hell's angels, ect.), in truth we're just extremely obnoxious, and we have a nasty tendency to foul up some of Uncle Ho's best laid plans, and that guy just has no sense of humor.

So you've become a swimming instructress. I know how it is teaching small kids how to swim, I went that route once myself at the "Y". Well anyway hang in there the kid sounds like she's got a great future in the water, either as an Olympic swimmer or a Labrador retriever.

Well I just got clobbered for guard duty again so I'm going to have to cut an run ~~to~~ ~~you~~ enjoy your peace while you can because little brothers like General MacArthur always return
