

11-26-1918

Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #12

Charles Eggeling

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling_collection

Recommended Citation

Eggeling, Charles, "Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #12" (1918). Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence. 12.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling_collection/12

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

Charles Eggeling; November 26, 1918; World War 1914 1918 United States. Army American Expeditionary Forces; World War 1914 1918 United States. Regimental histories Coast Artillery; Regimental histories 111th Machine Gun Battalion, 29th Division; World War 1914 1918 United States. Letterhead; World War 1914 1918 United States. Travel and description France; World War 1914 1918 Knights of Columbus;

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, correspondence, Western Front, Infantry, artillery, France, tobacco, New York, NY, funds, money, Newark, NJ, wounded, injury, hospital, women at home, romance, Bronx, New York, postal service, going home, post-war hopes, letterhead, medical treatment

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Eggeling_worldwarone_1918-11-26_019

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

American Expeditionary Forces

Knights of Columbus

Bordeaux
Somewhere in France Nov. 26th, 1918

SENDING MAIL TO SOLDIERS IN FRANCE

Pay regular postage to New York and address:

111th, M. G. Br. Co. A. 29th Div.

A. P. O. 765

Regt. Bat. Co. A. E. F.

NEW YORK, N. Y.

My dear Sunshins-

No doubt you will be surprised when you receive this letter + see the post mark on it a young fellow i met in the hospital was sent home so i gave him this to mail in the good old U. S. A. We had the cot next to mine we got talking to one + other + became good friends when I came in I had nothing not even any tobacco he shared his with me + bought more this is the third month I did not get paid. He lives at Newark N. J. + his name is Jack Gray I gave him Pa's + Herman's address + told him to go + see them, I told him he could go + see you, if he would be a good boy, but some how or other I dont think he will. He had quite a bad wound on his heel but he is getting along fine.

If I was going home now I certainly would be very happy. But it will be the happiest day of my life when I am with my dear little Sunshine once again.

My dear if you + the people know how we suffered + what we went through. But thats enough of this, time enough when I get home no use of telling you now. Well dear my friend is going off soon so I have to give him this, I wrote to you Sunday but I guess you will get this before I am still at the hospital but will be sent off this week dont know where I will be sent so dear it wont be any use to mail me any more

[[Nick Dante 11/5/15]]

[[Egging Correspondence #19]]

[[Page 1-Letter]]

[[Letterhead- American Expeditionary Forces
Knights of Columbus]]

Bordeaux

[[text- Somewhere in France]] Nov. 26th, [[text: 1918]]

111th, M.G. Bn. Co. A. 29th Div.
A.P.O. 0765

My dear Sunshine-

No doubt you will be surprised when you receive this letter + see the post mark on it A young fellow i met in the hospital was sent home so i gave him this to mail in the good old U.S.A.
He had the cot next to mine We got talking to me + other + became good friends when I came in I had nothing not even any tobacco he shared his with me + bought more this is the Third month I did not get paid. He lives at Newark, N.J.
+ his name is Jack Gray I gave him
Pa's + Herman's address + told him to go + see them, I told him

[[Page 2-Letter]]

he could go + see you if he would be a good boy, but some how or other I don't think he will. He had quite a bad wound in his heel but he is getting along fine.

If I was going home now i certainly would be very happy
But it will be the happiest day of my life when I am with my dear little Sunshine once again.

My dear if you + the people know how we suffered + what we went through. But that's enough of this, Time enough when I get home no use of telling you now. Well dear my friend is going off soon so I have to give him this, I wrote to you Sunday but I guess you will get this before.
I am still at the hospital but will be sent off this week Don't know where I will be sent so dear it wont be any use to mail me any more