My Dear Father

I rec'd your letter of the 10th or the 13th. You still owe me a letter in answer to one written after the 4th Last night our Regiment was paid We rec'd two months pay and Half Bounty I do not send any money Home this time I loaned all my spare money to Lieut Smith at 10 per cent until next pay day I did not like to do it but he has always let me have any thing I wanted and done me a great many favors and by borrowing that amount from me he squared up all his old debts and will be all square with plenty of money next two months I would not have done it with any one else but I thought I could safely loan it to him for that short a time He is not like Mitchell spend money first and then pay debts afterwards He pays every thing square as he goes.

Georgia got his pay from Mitchell at last he is no longer with the Officers and I think he has learned a lesson in lending money to as fast a Capt as ours.

Georgia is with Dr Lewis and gets along first rate he has scarcely any thing to do and if he will only study well he can get a better position in a few months - John Chute Bt came this morning and I got my things all right I am very well pleased with the shirts they are just the thing for I break out with the sweat so that the government wool shirts dont suit me at all -

I also got the things you sent me in Carelago Bt

I wish you would go to Stapp and Bramham and buy me a good Black Coat and send me I think if you will take it to Smiths Clothing store you can send it with Dr Saml Lewis goods he says for one to ^{do} that way. if he has shipped Docs things send it the first chance you get I have none but an old General Olay that is all worn out and I can none of any kind here for less than 7 or 8 $.

There is getting to be a good deal of sickness in the Regt the last two weeks although our Company is about well on the 12th we were called upon to bury Capt I. S.
Brinkley of Co I he was from Bloomington Ind he was a good Capt and a good citizen and also a firm and good Christian.
He died very suddenly only being sick 3 days I see him the day before he died he did not think he would get up again he said if he was certain that his Body Could be sent home he would die contented but we could not send his Body home it is contrary to Genl Sherman's Order to send any Bodies north from South of Nashville until after October 1st. I suppose you will remember the Capt he was officer of the day the time you give us the Dinner at Columbus a very fleshy man. He was a Lieut in the 54th I knew him well.

Our Regiment is being gradually scattered we only have 8 Companies out of the 12 here with us now We are building Stables I think we will stay here all winter - Mr Ryker left yesterday try and see him when he arrives.

I must close good Bye

Your aff any
I B. Safford

P.S.
Kearley is expecting a furlough to 1890
made up to see his sick wife I will send this by him
