

12-1-1918

Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #13

H. M. Eggeling

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Eggeling, H. M., "Charles Eggeling First World War Correspondence #13" (1918). Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence. 13.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/ceggeling\_collection/13

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles Eggeling First World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

Subject Terms

Charles Eggeling; December 1, 1918; World War 1914 1918 United States. Army American Expeditionary Forces; World War 1914 1918 United States. Regimental histories Coast Artillery; Regimental histories Machine Gun Battalion, 49th Infantry; Letterhead;

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, correspondence, Western Front, Infantry, artillery, family, women at home, Bronx, New York, wife, husband, camaraderie, going home, money, funds, injury, holiday, health and sickness, gifts, coming home

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Eggeling_worldwarone_1918-12-01_012

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

Eggeling & Selman
HUMBORG BROS.

- Props -

Central Hall Café

LODGE AND MEETING ROOMS. BOWLING ALLEYS

217 COURT ST.

"BRANCH" ELTONA HOTEL
So. E. Cor. 165th St. & FOREST AVE.
BOROUGH OF BRONX, NEW YORK

TELEPHONE. 1143 MELROSE

Brooklyn, N. Y., December 1st 1918

Dear Charlie we received your letter which you sent Oct 29 and we were sorry to hear that you were hurt in the last engagement. I hope you received your package that your Mother & Irene send by Wamamatter Paris Store. The coupon you sent came to late. I think that you might be home before Christmas I hope you will be when waiting for Irene to come over to see about things. but your Mother saw her yesterday and she said that she was not feeling not very well Herman was not feeling well lately he has been in bed for three days. Charlie, I am glad that the war is over. the war has hurt us a good many thousand dollars. Charlie about your allotment that you allowed your Mother. she only received one cheque for $10.00 which she received the first of September so when they straiten your account tell your Captain how your pay stand so you get all that is coming to you. we are all well and we had a good time thanksgiving Lulu and Tom staid at the house for a week we had a 20 lb Turkey and we all did not do thing to it we were all wishing you were here and we all said a prayer for you and hoping for your safe return. Charlie the party up in the house moved out and stuck me for three months sent. Lulu is going to move in the first of January Gus sends his kind regards to you also Grammy we are feeling all right bussiness is fair so now I will come to close hoping all is well From your loving Father & Mother
H. M. Eggeling

[[Nick Dante 11/2/15]]

[[Eggeling Correspondence #12]]

[[Letterhead: HUMBORG BROS.
Central Hall Café
LODGE AND MEETING ROOMS. BOWLING ALLEYS
217 COURT ST.]]

[[HUMBORG BROS. crossed out. Written above:]] Eggeling & Lehman
- Props -

[[text: Brooklyn, N.Y.,]] December 1st 1918

Dear Charlie

We received you letter which you sent Oct 29 and we wher sorry to hear that you where hurt in the last Engagement. I hope you received your package that your Mother & Iriene sent by Wanamaker Paris Store. The coupon you sent came to late. I think that you might be home before Christmas I hope you will. Me wher waiting for Irine to Come over to see about things. but your Mother saw her yesterday and she said that she was not feeling not very well Herman was not feeling well lately he has been in bed for three days. Charlie. I. am glad that the war is over. The war has hurt us a good many thousand Dollars. Charlie about your allotment that you allowed your Mother. she only received one cheque for <sup>s</sup>10<sup>00</sup> which she received the first of September So when they Straiten your account tell. Your Captain how your pay stand so you get all that is Coming to you. we are all well and we had a good time thanksgiven. Lulu and Tom staid at the House for a week we had a 20<sup>lb</sup> Turkey and we all did not do thing to it we wher all wishing you wher here and we all said a Prayer for you and hoping for your Safe return. Charlie the party up in the House moved out and stuck me for three months rent. Lulu is going to move in the First of January Gus send his Kind regards to you also Granney We are feeling all right Bussiness is fair so now. I. will Come to Close hoping all is well From your loving Father, Mother
H.M. Eggeling